MISSION STATEMENTS

The Salvation Army, an international movement, is an evangelical part of the universal Christian church.

Its message is based on the bible.

Its ministry is motivated by the love of God.

Its mission is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and to meet human needs in His name without discrimination.

The Railton School for Youth Worker Training is a Salvation Army youth leadership development program.

It integrates the challenges of Christian life and discipleship with the academic, vocational and technical skills of youth work.

Its focus is to cultivate youth workers for front-line ministries who will be committed to reclaiming children and youth for Christ.

Students experience concentrated mentoring in the development of their character, learn to embrace the core values of Salvation Army theology, mission and programs, and are equipped with essential professional skills and tools to effectively initiate and support youth work taking place in local Corps and Community Centers.
